A FILM BY HONG SANGSOO

SYNOPSIS

Donghwa, a poet in his thirties, drops off Junhee, his girlfriend of three years, at her house and marvels at how large it is. He intends to look around the front yard and then leave, but by chance he runs into Junhee's father, and ends up spending the entire day with them. He visits a Buddhist temple by the river, and eats a stew made from a chicken Junhee's father caught himself. At night Donghwa gets very drunk and reveals his true feelings, but Junhee's parents are turned off by him. Early the next morning, Donghwa bids Junhee a quick farewell and drives away from that house.
